Prayer for the National Day of Truth & Reconciliation

"For the upcoming National Day of Truth and Reconciliation, September 30. May this day truly be an opportunity for reflection and right action toward lasting reconciliation between Indigenous and non-Indigenous Canadians. Let us pray to the Creator Lord."

Morning Offering

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, my works, my joys and my sufferings of this day for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, for the salvation of souls, the reparation of sins, the reunion of all Christians, and especially for the intentions of the Holy Father this month. Amen.

Verse of the day

"If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire." Mark 9:43

Quote of the day

"When you awake in the night, transport yourself quickly in spirit before the Tabernacle, saying: 'Behold, my God, I come to adore You, to praise, thank, and love you, and to keep you company with all the Angels.'" St. John Vianney

Saint of the Day - The Archangels

The Archangels St. Gabriel, St. Michael, and St. Raphael share a feast day on September 29th. These are the only three angels mentioned by name in Sacred Scripture. St. Gabriel means “Power of God.” He is the messenger or herald angel most famous for appearing to the Blessed Virgin Mary at the Annunciation (Luke 1:11-38). St. Michael means “Who is like God?” He is the warrior angel, the famous foe of Satan, who is the champion of God’s people and guardian and protector of the Church (Rev. 12:7-9). St. Raphael means “God has healed.” He is a companion and healing angel, most famous for curing a man’s blindness and for traveling with Tobiah in the book of Tobit (Tob. 12)
